

Fairbanks Summer Arts Festival

Alaska Midnight Sun Chamber Percussion Intensive

Faculty - Bob Becker, Morris Palter

For the experienced undergraduate/graduate or professional percussionist

July 18th - 23rd, 2011
University of Alaska Fairbanks

Bob Becker

Internationally acclaimed percussionist and composer,
NEXUS co-founder and Steve Reich Ensemble member

Morris Palter

Renowned soloist and chamber percussionist, UAF percussion studio and Ensemble 64.8 director

Study advanced chamber percussion works under the guidance of two leading chamber percussionists during the 2011 Fairbanks Summer Arts Festival

AMSCPI participants receive:

- * Daily intensive rehearsals and coaching from Becker and Palter
- * Showcase finale concert at FSAF
- * Daily seminar presentations by Becker and Palter
- * Solo performance opportunities
- * On-site accommodations available

Seminar Topics Include:

Ragtime Xylophone
Minimalist Music Performance
Techniques
Mallet wrapping
Memorization Techniques

Tuition Packages:

$750 - includes Chamber Performance Intensive and daily Seminars
$550 - Chamber Performance Intensive only $250 - daily Seminars package only $60 - individual Seminars

Join us at the 2011 Fairbanks Summer Arts Festival for a unique opportunity to study advanced chamber percussion repertoire under the midnight sun in beautiful Fairbanks, Alaska!

For more information please email
mspalter@alaska.edu or visit www.fsaf.org
Phone: (907) 474-1873

Sponsored in part by :

