Deep in the Heart of Texas

With the Austin Symphony Orchestra

April 1 & 2, 2011

As part of the 40th anniversary celebration of NEXUS and the 80th anniversary of Takemitsu's birth, NEXUS gave two performances of "From me flows what you call Time" with the Austin Symphony Orchestra, conducted by Peter Bay. The April 1 and 2 performances were in the Dell Hall at the beautiful new Long Performing Arts Center in Austin, Texas.

Since the 1990 premiere of "From me flows what you call Time," composed for NEXUS by Toru Takemitsu, the group has performed this milestone work with orchestras all over the world (Boston, Chicago, Hannover, London, Los Angeles, Lyon, New York, Philadelphia, San Francisco, Schleswig-Holstein, Stavanger, Tokyo, Toronto, and many others).

"It was a sonic Feast. . . the balcony chimes recalled a call to worship, a sign of the music's power as it reached through the audience and the entire hall."
