On May 9 and 11, 2013 NEXUS, the Toronto based percussion group, performed “From me flows what you call Time” by Toru Takemitsu with the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra, conducted by Peter Bay in the beautiful Eastman Theatre in Rochester, New York.

Since the 1990 premiere of “From me flows what you call Time,” NEXUS has performed this milestone work with orchestras all over the world (Boston, Chicago, Hannover, London, Los Angeles, Lyon, New York, Philadelphia, San Francisco, Schleswig-Holstein, Stavanger, Tokyo, Toronto, and many others). The Rochester performances drew cheers and prolonged ovations from the Eastman Theatre audiences.

“... a delightful, intense and deftly planned collision of classical precision and spontaneous rhythm . . . the collaboration between the RPO and NEXUS was inspiring”

(Jeff Spevak, Rochester Democrat & Chronicle, May 11, 2013)

NEXUS thanks the Canada Council for the Arts and the Ontario Arts Council for their support
